While IPA's 139 foundation members have $17 billion in assets and gave over $800 million last year...

Foundations are as much about ideas and knowledge as they are about grant dollars.

Foundations work for the common good—we believe everyone in Indiana should have the opportunity to live in a community of which they can be proud.

Our goal is to transform communities and lives—by tackling big challenges facing Indiana and making our state a better place to live.

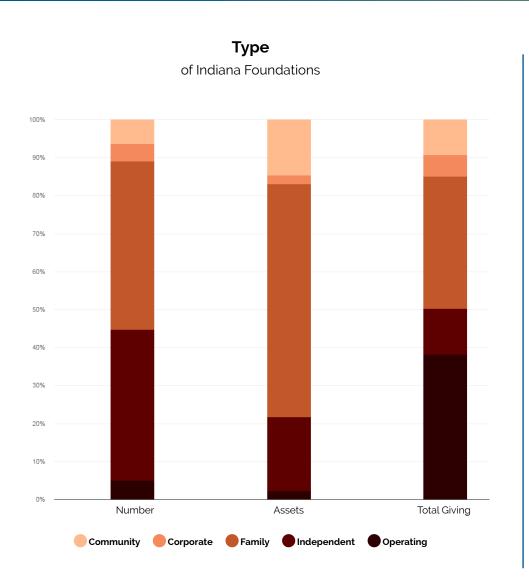

We bring together the doers from nonprofits, business, government, and other sectors—people who care about Indiana and their communities and know how to get things done.

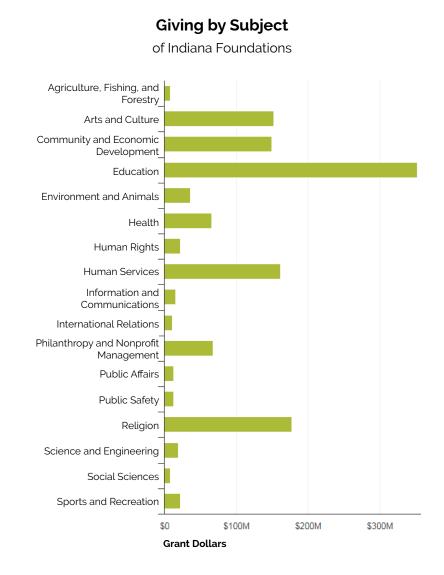

We take a big-picture view of tough challenges—like the economy, education, healthcare, and the environment—responding to community needs and leveraging resources to create lasting change.

Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA) is a nonprofit membership association of and for the state's philanthropic grantmaking community. Our members include public and private foundations, corporate giving programs, governmental grantmakers, regranting organizations, philanthropic advisors, and other qualified individuals.
