What is the Partner Network?

The Youth Philanthropy Partner Network is an affinity group of Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA); however, you do not need to be an IPA member to join. It is a network for grantmakers and community organizations that seek to promote and raise awareness of youth philanthropy.

Benefits of the Partner Network

The network not only brings energy and enthusiasm to the mutual goal of promoting youth philanthropy, it provides partners with the following benefits:

- Quarterly meetings at varying host locations provide the opportunity to network, share ideas, and collaborate with other youth-serving, philanthropy-minded organizations.
- Private Facebook group and listservs support network communications between meetings.
- Professional development opportunities at each meeting dive into topics that foster youth philanthropy, such as leadership development, social-emotional learning, relationship-building, mentoring, and more.
- Monthly emails with resources and grant opportunities relevant to the work of Partner Network members.
- Access to IPA’s youth philanthropy online resources, including guidebooks, webinars, and research.
- Copy of Phil and His Family’s Adventures in Giving (AKA Phil’s Gift Box). $20 Value

Commitment to the Partner Network

The strength of our collaborative is rooted in the Partner Network’s dedication to advancing philanthropy throughout the state. To ensure that our work stays consistent and strong, it is important for all partners to:

- Pay the annual Partner Network support fee. See dues structure on backside.
- Attend and participate in partner meetings.
- Share what your organization is doing to promote youth philanthropy during meetings through the private Facebook group, on the listserv, etc.
- Link to the IPA website from your organization’s website (inphilanthropy.org).
- Collaborate with partners to develop and promote your philanthropic programs.
- Like IPA on Facebook (@IndianaPhilanthropy), follow us on Twitter (@inphilanthropy), and like/share relevant posts with your personal network.
Youth Philanthropy Partner Network fees are determined on the following categories: nonprofit organization, individual, and corporate.

Invoices are sent in the fall of each year and are payable upon receipt.

Nonprofit Organization Membership: $100/YEAR

- When joining as a nonprofit member, benefits are applicable to each of the organization’s staff members who wish to participate.
- Organization name will be listed in the “participating members” list on the IPA website.

Individual Membership: $50/YEAR

- When joining as an individual member, benefits are applicable ONLY to the individual for whom the fee has been paid and is not transferable.
- Individual name will NOT be listed in the “participating members” list on the IPA website, to ensure individual privacy.

Corporate Membership: $250/YEAR

- When joining as a corporate member, benefits are applicable to each of the corporation’s staff members who wish to participate.
- Corporation’s name will be listed in the “participating members” list on the IPA website.
