Youth Philanthropy Connect (YPC) and Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana (YPII) are partnering to host a 4-part webinar series designed to support next-gen leadership and giving opportunities.

These FREE webinars feature national experts and youth philanthropists highlighting topics of meeting facilitation, diversifying youth programming, successful media strategies for sharing your story, and top resources on youth philanthropy. The series incorporates YPII's 4-pillar model of Serving, Giving, Leading, and Engaging to highlight the progression of youth taking action and engaging others in their communities. Participants will receive real-world examples and resources they can integrate into their programs.

MAY 23, 1-2:30 PM EDT (10-11:30 A.M. PDT)

NOT YOUR MOTHER'S MEETING

SPEAKERS: phish (philanthropic ideas strategy and heart) members, a group of teens who love philanthropy and play a leadership role within the Dekko Foundation's youth philanthropy initiatives; and Jenna Ott, Program Officer, Dekko Foundation

YP II PILLAR: SERVE

Do you ever go to a meeting and wonder why you came? Do your philanthropy meetings lack the fun and energy that keep people engaged and ready to participate? If so, this session might be for you. Join Jenna Ott from the Dekko Foundation and teens from their leadership program, phish, as they share best tips and tricks for successful meetings that won't look anything like the ones your mother attends.

JULY 25, 1-2:30 PM EDT (10-11:30 A.M. PDT)

DISCOVERING AND ENGAGING DIVERSE PHILANTHROPIC YOUTH

SPEAKERS: Sheryl Seller, Assistant Director, The Sillerman Center for the Advancement of Philanthropy at Brandeis University; Greater Worcester Community Foundation

YP II PILLAR: ENGAGE

Are the youth philanthropists engaged in your program representative of the community you serve? Diverse groups bring a variety of opinions to the table to better impact the community. Hear from program leaders and youth on how they have recruited diverse youth and created opportunities to engage and stay involved with them!

OCT. 3, 1-2:30 PM EDT (10-11:30 A.M. PDT)

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES: SUCCESSFUL MEDIA STRATEGIES TO SHARE IMPACT

SPEAKER: Lynn G. Sygiel, Editor, Charitable Advisors; Live insights from youth philanthropy programs including Youth Funding Youth Ideas (YFYI)

YP II PILLAR: LEAD

The giving season is fast approaching, which means an abundance of stories about giving and engaging youth and families in the media. Learn how to best prepare the story of your youth philanthropy program, your grants, and youth grantmakers. YPII, YPC, and many others want to support you in getting your impact into the news. This webinar will help to prepare you to develop and place your stories in the media.

DEC. 5, 1-2:30 PM EDT (10-11:30 A.M. PDT)

CELEBRATING THE TOP RESOURCES FOR YOUTH PHILANTHROPY

SPEAKER: Jen Bokoff and Amanda Dillon, Youthgiving.org; Rachel Ogorek and Kylie Musolf, National Center for Family Philanthropy

YP II PILLAR: GIVE

Join us as we celebrate the top resources from across the youth philanthropy field. We will hear from those who developed resources and youth from programs who have used or implemented these tools. This webinar will give you the resources and the knowledge on how to fully utilize them in your own programs to take youth philanthropy to the next level!

ABOUT YPII & YPC

Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana (YPII)

Locally based in Indianapolis, Indiana and nationally connected, YPII is a signature program of the Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA). With the mission “to grow lifelong philanthropists who share their time, talent, and treasure for the common good”, YPII provides educational training, youth philanthropy research and philanthropic resources to community foundations, youth-serving organizations, schools, families, and youth interested in teaching youth about giving and serving (philanthropy) in their communities. Learn more at www.ypin.org.

Youth Philanthropy Connect (YPC)

YPC connects youth philanthropists (ages 8-21) and the adults who support them to each other, program resources, and learning opportunities. YPC works nationally and partners internationally to support the youth philanthropy movement through organizing and supporting capacity building for youth philanthropy programs, convening in-person and online to unite the youth philanthropy network of youth grantmakers and those who support them, raising awareness of youth philanthropy overall and to grow the global youth philanthropy movement.
