

In small towns, on city streets, and everywhere in between, you're a force for good in the world. IPA is here to support all you do to build vibrant communities with great opportunity for all.

Consider us your confidants, your supporters, and your go-to-place for philanthropy. Behind every shift, obstacle, or opportunity, you've got a partner to back you up, challenge you, and support you.

The problems we address might be different, but our collective voice and social impact are strong.

IPA is a diverse network of thinkers, doers, problem-solvers, and leaders who bring a variety of perspectives together. We believe that leveraging intersections, understanding differences, and growing together are powerful actions to address even the most complex issues.
