

EDUCATION

Become a stronger leader and improve organizational effectiveness.

Statewide conferences bring Indiana philanthropy together to learn, network, and re-energize the sector.

- Hear national experts and be inspired alongside your peers in philanthropy.
- Choose from over two dozen sessions covering public policy, finance and investments, leadership, grantmaking, and issue-based content.

Practice-oriented programs refine and expand your skills.

- Workshops and learning cohorts help organizations and staff hone leadership skills and become more effective in their work.
- Webinars and virtual meetings connect IPA's network on philanthropic trends and best practices, while making experts in the field accessible to all.

Idea-sharing and discussion grounds your work in a wider context.

- Committees offer collaborative leadership opportunities.
- Peer communities connect philanthropic staff who share a particular funding interest, professional role, or personal attribute.
- Online communities and listservs enable quick polling of your peers.

Move our state forward, together.

- Issue collaboratives offer collective learning, advocacy, and action on specific issues impacting our society.

NETWORKING

Tap into Indiana's vibrant community of philanthropists.

ADVOCACY

Be a part of an active, unified voice representing and protecting interests of philanthropy.

Regular updates keep you in the know of state and federal legislation impacting your work.

- While the Indiana General Assembly is in session, weekly updates summarize legislation impacting the work of philanthropy in Indiana.
- Federal action alerts notify you when philanthropy interests are at stake and your voice is most critical.

Dialogue with elected officials ensures a supportive environment for philanthropy.

- Foundations on the Hill is an annual trip to capitol hill, where IPA staff and members share accomplishments and concerns with federal lawmakers.
- Day at the Statehouse takes place during General Assembly session to help members build relationships with state legislators and government agencies.
- Regional meetings with legislators during summer recess.

INFORMATION

Access news, research, and resources tailored to the needs and interests of Indiana philanthropy.

Indiana-specific news and analysis inform your work.

- IPA's virtual magazine features member stories, Indiana philanthropy news, and coverage of the latest research and trends from the field.
- Breaking news alerts draw your attention to developing stories of critical importance to the sector.
- Delve into Indiana philanthropy trends with IPA reports, including a compilation of Midwest grantmaker salary, benefits, and demographics data.

Technical assistance and resources increase your efficiency.

- IPA's responsive staff provide back-office support to your team.
- Access to the Foundation Legal Help Desk, with direct access to an attorney for quick answers to legal questions.
- Access to our online resource library powered by United Philanthropy Forum puts the collective knowledge of over 4,000 foundations at your fingertips.
- Access to IPA's vetted consultants with competitive rates, who have experience working with Indiana foundations and philanthropists.

Save on services that keep you running and informed.

- Discounted pricing for educational programs from IPA and our local, statewide, and national partners, including National Center for Family Philanthropy and other members of United Philanthropy Forum.
- Discounted rates for a variety of insurance coverage through multiple vendors, including D&O insurance, health insurance, AFLAC plans, long-term disability coverage, cyber security, and more.
- Complimentary job postings on IPA website, newsletter, and social channels.
- Numerous discounts on software, services, publications, and tuition, including through Indiana University's The Fund Raising School.(www.inphilanthropy.org/discounts).

DISCOUNTS

Benefit from IPA's partnerships with national philanthropy supporting organizations.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE

info@inphilanthropy.org | 317-630-5200 Ext. 119