ABOUT LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

Membership investment only covers 32% of IPA's operating budget. Over the years, members have made gifts to our Leadership Circle, IPA's donor recognition program. As you invest in your IPA membership, we ask you to consider a Leadership Circle contribution. Your gift is a gift to all members and helps IPA provide networking, education, and advocacy opportunities designed to maximize impact, develop leadership skills, and form vital relationships with policymakers. Learn more at www.inphilanthropy.org/leadership-circle.

CRITERIA

Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA) membership is open to individuals and organizations involved in philanthropy: foundations, corporations, donor-advised funds, government agencies, giving circles, professional philanthropic advisors, trust officers, students of philanthropy, and retired staff and board members of philanthropic organizations.

PROFESSIONAL ADVISORS

Membership in IPA indicates commitment to the highest standards of competence and ethical practice, to advance clients' philanthropic goals in accordance with applicable charitable and philanthropic laws and regulations, and to share knowledge and experience to strengthen Indiana philanthropy.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Membership is for a 12-month period and will be pro-rated as appropriate. Renewals begin in January, annually. If renewals are not received by June 1, membership will be discontinued.

NON-SOLICITATION POLICY

Indiana Philanthropy Alliance seeks to create a community of shared inquiry characterized by mutual respect and trust. Our events are meant to foster a free and open exchange of ideas. In keeping with that purpose, all participants are asked to refrain from soliciting funds, business, or job opportunities at our events. All program related materials are provided for information purposes only and may not be used without permission. Attendee contact information may not be added to mailing lists or used for the purposes of solicitation.

DISCLAIMER

IPA retains final discretion on all matters concerning membership approval.

CONTACT

If you have questions about membership eligibility or dues, please email us at info@inphilanthropy.org and our member services representative will contact you directly.
